

THE ART SUITE

César Ritz

Live like the original. A name that is synonymous with luxury.

César Ritz changed the world forever when he decided to undertake his complete overhaul of the hotel world. Contemporary travel simply would not be the same without him.

He sadly did not manage to stay in the hotel before his death, as he passed away just a year before it opened. We have created this art suite in his honour, to never forget the man who made history.

“Never say no when a client asks for something, even if it’s in the moon. You can always try, and anyhow, there is plenty of time afterwards to explain that it was not possible”
